

There is already far too much interference on the AM band. Allowing IBOC digital broadcasting can only worsen it dramatically. Please do not permit it. I will no longer be able to listen to the stations I can presently hear, some of which have relatively weak signals.